Great Reception to Be Tendered Frank Chance in Chicago on May 17 is a Rebuke to the Cub Management.

Copyright, 1913, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World).

WHEN Frank Chance reaches Chicago on May 17 he will be given the greatest reception tendered any player since the Cubs returned to the pen after walloping Carthage for the pennant. Mayor Carter Harrison and Gov. Deneen of the State of Illinois head the reception committee, and all the notable citizens of Chicago, and somewhere in the list C. Webb Murphy will be prominently absent. He hasn't been invited to take part in the festivities. Even if he had been, C. Webb probably would find important business taking him to Oshkosh, Wis., on that date.

The reception to Chance uncovers a curious situation. Here is the leader of a baseball team from an opposing city having clannish Chicagoans and being greeted like a city-saving hero.

In a way the reception must be regarded as a rebuke to the Cub management, which practically forced Frank Chance to sever his connection with the Cubs and leave Chicago, afterward to go to another city where his services would be better appreciated by his employers.

For years the Cubs have been supported by the most loyal fans in the nation. The treatment of Chance, however, has caused a change of spirit in Chicago. This reception to Chance means more than appears on the surface. It means that the ball fans of the Windy City are transferring their allegiance to the rival league. And they are doing it openly, boldly and joyously, with every intention in the world of letting the Cub management know all about it.

Whatever the motive underlying this reception may be, the whole thing is a tremendous tribute to the personality of Frank Chance and to the popularity of baseball. What other object could enlist the attention of scores of Chicago's biggest political and business men and start them hustling a month in advance of the event?

WILLARD, the altitudinous white heavyweight, is in California. Jesse writes that he is thinking of letting Tommy Jones make a few matches for him, although he doesn't intend to break away entirely from the management of his friend, Charlie Cutler.

The main trouble, says Willard, is that he hasn't been able to get matches enough to keep to his schedule. He thinks Jones can hook him up with a bunch of heavyweights and bring the coin rolling in less spasmodically. The big fellow is weighing just 385 pounds, and is keeping himself in good shape, and apparently has stopped growing, as he still claims a few more on his belt. He is going to join Willard's camp and do a little work—not as a sparring partner, however.

Willard shouldn't feel annoyed because he hasn't had enough fighting to do. Had he stayed in New York, instead of hiking out to Chicago, and the Middle West, he would have been busier than a traffic cop on Broadway. He was matched with One Round Davis of Buffalo, but for some unknown reason, probably good enough, gave Buffalo the go-by.

For this oversight on the part of Mr. Willard the State Athletic Commission suspended him until such time as he has fulfilled his Buffalo contract. If the giant really felt an anxiety to fight every night in the week he should have come right back to Buffalo, gone the route with One Round Davis and then taken the midnight train for New York City. Here, with Gunboat Smith, Kearns, Roden and a bunch of other heavyweights, he could have found employment. Oh, yes, and if I remember right Jack Twin Sullivan is very anxious to fight Mr. Willard. As such weight as a half as much as the said-tall giant, and is within a foot or two of his height, the result might have been interesting. Among these big wallpapers Jack Twin can stir up trouble like a peevish hornet in a boarding school.

NOT a word from Jeffries. But I note in a letter from "Vic" that the yellow tail fishing at Catalina is particularly good just now. Waste time training and fighting? What a chance!

WHAT New Yorkers have seen of Johnny Kilbane's fighting ability, and what we have seen of Joe Rivers, makes Johnny's challenge to Rivers look like a joke. Kilbane did knock out Rivers when Rivers was a featherweight. But it was only after a nip and tuck argument. Rivers today is no longer a novice feather. He's a first class, experienced lightweight. It's impossible to imagine Kilbane having any chance whatever with him—except the chance of outtrumping him and dodging out of trouble. And he'd need a quarter mile ring to do that in.

(Special to The Evening World.) POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, April 11.—The rain finally stopped long enough for the Giants and Dodgers to start a game this afternoon, but the bad weather had left McGraw's forces somewhat disturbed. Shaffer and Burns, the two new regulars, are both laid up with colds, and this necessitated the placing of Devore and Fletcher back in the line-up.

The day was too raw and cold for two such hot-weather stars as Rucker and Mathewson. Dahien decided to use Allen, his young left-hander, and McGraw trusted the fate of the champs in the hands of Leon Ames, who felt all right since he escaped the opening game hoodoo.

Notwithstanding the threatening weather a crowd of six thousand was out to see the fight.

Ames was in great shape at the start and with his sweeping curve struck out Stengel and Meyer and retired Cutshaw on an easy fly to Murray in right. NO RUNS.

After Snodgrass had struck out trying to solve Allen's left-hand shot, Devore came right back to Buffalo, gone the route with One Round Davis and then taken the midnight train for New York City. This Is Important Week
For Lightweight Stars

Good Bouts Scheduled at New Orleans, Vernon, San Francisco and This City.

BY JOHN POLLOCK.

THIS is an important week for the stars in the lightweight class, for eight of them are called to take part in battles. To-night at New Orleans Young Shurine and Johnny Lore will fight ten rounds, to-morrow night Knockout Brown and "Red" Anderson will meet for twenty rounds at Vernon, Cal., and Jack Britton and Matty Baldwin will hook up in a ten-round bout at the St. Nicholas A. C. show. The big bout of the week will be fought on Saturday afternoon when Tommy Murphy will get another chance at Ad Wolf, the ex-lightweight champion, in a twenty-round bout at Jim Coffroth's open air arena in San Francisco.

Mike Gibbons, who has not fought since he met Eddie McElroy in their tame ten-round bout in Madison Square Garden several months ago, is going to fight again. He has just signed articles of agreement calling for him to meet "Red" Anderson, a welterweight, at East 100th street, on May 1. Gibbons has a winning record of 10 wins and 1 loss, and is not known as a "soft mark."

Jack McCarron, the middleweight fighter of Allentown, Pa., has just won a decision over a local fighter, and is expected to meet "Red" Anderson in a ten-round bout at the St. Nicholas A. C. show. McCarron has a winning record of 10 wins and 1 loss, and is not known as a "soft mark."

Scotty Monteth, manager of Johnny Dundee, the local lightweight, has just won a decision over a local fighter, and is expected to meet "Red" Anderson in a ten-round bout at the St. Nicholas A. C. show. Dundee has a winning record of 10 wins and 1 loss, and is not known as a "soft mark."

Two prominent fighters are due to arrive here from England within the next twenty-four hours. Al Palmer, the heavyweight whose prowess fought in Paris with Jack Johnson has been called off to fight a ten-round bout at the St. Nicholas A. C. show. Palmer has a winning record of 10 wins and 1 loss, and is not known as a "soft mark."

Mike Rosen and Young Hector, the crack Jersey City lightweight, will be matched to meet in another ten-round bout at the same club in two weeks. Rosen was secured today to meet Joe Brown, the clever local brawler, for ten rounds at the St. Nicholas A. C. next Saturday night.

Neither side scored in the next two innings. Yerkes was nailed at the plate in the third when he tried to score from first on Spiker's double.

In the fourth inning, after Cree was called out on strikes, Chase went off the field with Doc Barrett, his arm giving him too much trouble to stay in the game. This was the result of being hit on the throwing arm in batting practice. Stump batting for him fanned Sterret out. Yerkes to Janvyn.

Stump went to second for New York in the fourth. Lewis out. Caldwell to Sterret. Gardner singled to left. Young fumbled Janvyn's grounder. Wagner hit into a double play, Young to Stump to Sterret.
